

Estrella Acosta

Cuban singer-songwriter Estrella Acosta brings an innovative approach to the music of her motherland. With her warm earthy voice she creates an energetic yet intimate and personal style, rooted in the sounds of her native Cuba.

Her travel footprint, including festival appearances at North Sea Jazz, World Music Chicago, Canada's Sunfest and the Jazz Plaza Festival in Havana, truly makes her a citizen of the world.

Based in the Netherlands, Estrella recorded six albums and a single, which have won international acclaim. Her new album, 'Tierra', which features songs by female songwriters from the countryside of Cuba as well as her own compositions, was nominated for a Latin GRAMMY® 2023.

"Estrella Acosta is one of the most versatile Antillean singers of our times." - Luis Tamargo

"...it is the sheer poetry of the music and the lyricism of the renditions by Estrella Acosta that capture the imagination..." - Raul Da Gama
